

CABOT

Miss Maldene Walbridge and Dr. Bolton Married.

A very pretty wedding took place on Saturday evening, Aug. 18, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Walbridge, when their daughter, Maldene Elsie, was united in marriage with Dr. Raymond B. Bolton. The house was attractively decorated throughout with cut flowers and ferns, the color scheme in the parlor being pink and white, with an arch of evergreen in one corner, intertwined with ropes of sweet peas. Preceding the wedding march, a pleasing musical program was rendered, consisting of a selection by the Walbridge orchestra and a vocal solo, "Oh Promise Me," by Mrs. E. P. Walbridge, with violin obligato by Miss Merna Walbridge.

The bridal party entered the parlor to the opening strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Emma Packer of Marshfield. The flower girl, little Jennie Smith, scattered sweet pea blossoms, followed by the ring bearers, June Smith and Master Richard Gould. The bride and groom were attended by Miss Alice Blodgett of Barre and Wendell Hickie of Orange City, Fla. Miss Blanch Walla of Chelmsford, Mass., and Maurice E. Walbridge, brother of the bride, Miss Merna Walbridge and Miss Ruth Bolton.

After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Morton W. Hale, pastor of the Congregational church in Cabot, a reception was held, followed by a wedding supper, served in the dining room. The bride was prettily attired in white tulle and carried a shower bouquet of pink and white roses. The bridesmaids carried sweet peas and carnations. Many beautiful gifts of silver, linen and money were received.

Among the out of town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Tabor of Calais, Mrs. Louise Bell of East Hardwick and Mrs. Francis Goodale of Barre.

There is material on hand yet to make a dozen pajamas. Many members are knitting stockings, face cloths, and sleeveless jackets. It may be interesting to note that all articles go to supply the needs of our own soldier boys until the state headquarters have the required amount of garments and necessary articles. EAST MONTPELIER

Austin Foster, Aged 72, Died as Result of Accident.

Died, at his home Sunday morning, Austin Foster, aged 72 years. The deceased had been in feeble health for nearly a year, but the immediate cause of his death was an accident which occurred the Saturday afternoon preceding. Mr. Foster had been to some part of the farm and when returning, the horse took fright and ran away, throwing him from the wagon, breaking his nose and otherwise bruising him, besides giving him a bad shaking up. A physician was summoned. Mr. Foster rallied from the shock and was thought to be in no immediate danger, but a sudden ill turn and collapse brought his long and useful life to a speedy end.

Mr. Foster was a lifelong resident of East Montpelier and for many years was prominent in all town affairs and enterprises. He was for a long time an active member of the East Montpelier grange. In religion he was a Universalist. For many years he was one of the deacons of the church and foremost among its workers. His hospitality is well known for miles around and anyone coming to his home was sure of his cordial greeting and hearty welcome.

He put his best strength into the farm which he loved and only the day before his death he was out looking over his crops.

During the past year his health had been failing and his death was due to a general breaking down of the whole system.

Mr. Foster was born Jan. 12, 1845, the son of Henry D. and Sarah (Bassett) Foster, themselves life-long residents of East Montpelier. Fifty years ago next October he married Sarah Holmes, also of this town, who survives him. To this worthy couple were born six children, three sons and three daughters—Henry Foster of Worcester, Mass., Will C. and Frank Foster of East Montpelier, Mrs. K. L. Cleaves of Montpelier, Mrs. Lyle P. Young of East Montpelier, and Julia Foster, who lives at home. He also leaves one brother, Charles Foster, and two sisters, Mrs. William H. Gladding of Randolph and Mrs. W. T. Cleveland of Montpelier.

Funeral services were held at his late residence Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Alvin Smith of Williamstown officiating. Burial was at Greenwood cemetery. The bearers were his brother, Charles Foster, his sons, Henry, William and Frank, his sons-in-law, Dr. K. L. Cleaves of Montpelier and Lyle Young of East Montpelier.

Conner and wife, Mildred Thurston and Frank Clark gave valuable assistance on the program.

Brattleboro, Aug. 24.—Sixteen men arrived in Brattleboro this forenoon from New York on their way to Jamaica to be employed by the American Realty Co., a branch of the International Paper Co. Every few days a number of men arrive here for the same purpose and are soon absorbed by the lumber camps which the company is maintaining in Windham county with Jamaica as a center.

Few persons realize the magnitude of the operations of this concern in getting out pulpwood in this county. Little has been said about the work, but it has increased gradually since it was begun a year or more ago, and at the present time between 300 and 400 men are employed, besides 50 or more horses.

The company has six camps, the principal one and the headquarters being at Jamaica, at which town supplies arrive in carload lots and are distributed by "tote" teams to the various camps, everything being done in well-ordered system.

HIS LAST PRAYER.

Stevenson Wrote It For His Family the Night Before He Died.

On the night before Death gave him his hand Robert Louis Stevenson composed and read to his family the following prayer:

"We beseech thee, Lord, to behold us with favor, folk of many families and nations, gathered together in the peace of this roof; weak men and women, subsisting under the covert of thy patience. Be patient still; suffer us yet awhile longer with our broken purses of good, with our idle endeavors against evil; suffer us awhile longer to endure and (if it may be) help us to do better. Bless to us our extraordinary mercies; if the day come when these must be taken, have us play the man under affliction. Be with our friends; be with ourselves. Go with each of us to rest; if any awake, temper to them the dark hours of watching, and when the day returns to us, our sun and comfort, call us up with morning faces and with morning hearts, eager to labor, eager to be happy, if
